WARNING!

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEIT PRODUCTS

Amway Business Owners (ABOs) are the only authorised sellers of Amway products.

Lina found Amway products listed at a lower price whilst scrolling ABC.com, a 3rd party online shopping platform. She decided to order from the seller on ABC.com as she thought she could enjoy some savings.

When her order arrived, she discovered that the products looked different from the Amway products that she had purchased from an ABO previously.

She tried contacting the seller immediately. However, the seller did not respond despite multiple attempts.

When you purchase from an unauthorised seller,
AMWAY WILL NOT:

Guarantee the authenticity and/or quality of the product

Accept product returns

Accept complaints about product-related issues

Be responsible for any dispute over transactions between you and the unauthorised seller and/or the unauthorised platform

Apply the 90-day 100% Satisfaction Guarantee on your purchase

WARNING!

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEIT PRODUCTS

WHEN YOU BUY FROM AN ABO:

You will receive personalised services (including free consultation and recommendations, free demonstrations, etc.)

You are being serviced by someone you know and trust

Amway will honour the Amway 90-day Satisfaction Guarantee and Manufacturer's Warranty

You will receive info/advice on product(s) and usage from a knowledgeable ABO

You will receive new, authentic and quality product(s) that have been properly transported and stored

Growing of Nutralite Brand Story Along with Product Label Update

Existing

New

Our Nutralite story is growing. Simply and authentically.

As the brand continues to support you with natural, plant-based ingredients and products, the Nutralite logo and product labels will be refreshed to a modern and clean look, evoking the simple, healthy ingredients in our product.

All product formulation remains the same, ensuring that you can always achieve overall wellness in every stage of life.

As we are sharing labels with multiple countries, products with new labels may be observed at different times.

Nutralite products in existing labels will continue to be available for sale until stocks deplete and we will transit to the new label subsequently. The product image with new labels on Amway.sg website will take some time to be fully transitioned.
